This map product uses the most current data available in the USDA Forest Service cartographic database. Updates to Boundaries and Edges are restricted by Federal Regulations. The map depicts areas where motor vehicle use is allowed in a Forest Service administrative unit or national forest. For more information, contact your local forest service headquarters or the nearest USFS Information Office. This product generated and distributed on 1/30/2014.